I have to say this is the best expansion by far, if I had to recommend any of the DLC's for this game it has to be this one.

- New Pets
- New Shops
- New Enemies
- New Weapons
- New Bounty Rewards
- New Unique Map Expansion
- New Unique Expansion Cards
- New Game Mode that can end the game much faster and still have fun.
- 6 new characters that has really good effects on them in their own ways.. Alchemist + The City = ez game. In my opinion this expansion is the best one yet:

6 player option creates so much more fun

The AI has been speeded up so that even 6-player is faster than 4

There are now so many new cards that the combos just flow

Love the new "pet" creature in the city

Love the new shops in the city

The Bounty Hunter must be one of the greatest characters of all

I just love this game and this expansion has only improved it.. yes . no doubt. Let me preface this by saying that all of the expansions in the Kingdom Expansion Bundle are good, and that it's definitely worth going for the bundle instead of purchasing each map expansion individually.

Having both the City and Dungeon expansions unlocks the Deep Realms free DLC - a set of fun mini-dungeons with cool rewards that connect the eastern edge of the City and the western edge of the Dungeon.

The City Expansion on its own adds a a ton of new mechanics, followers, and equipment to the game - but my favorite so far are the pets.

I had a game where someone tried to insta-kill me by using the Medium to drop the King of the Dead right on top of me. My pet skunk Stinker sprayed him in the face and repelled him to the next space over :D

. This expansion is has some annoying bugs. Potions and other trinkets which state they can be used at any time yet cannot be used until it is your turn. A few other ones but the one game breaking one is Grumpy Wizard event card. The computer does not know what to do if this card is drawn and will get lock up.

The positives about this expansion is the shops, which give you far more choices to equip your character with than the original game alone.

This would be a great expansion if the bugs were fixed.

Whoso holdeth both Luna and Lucky shall break the game.

11V10 would buy pets in the city again

(Luna: Choose a result when paying fate to reroll a die.

Lucky: Replenish 1 fate every turn.). A very fun DLC for people who aren't poor.
